PARTNER, EXECUTIVE COACH
HEAD OF TPA ASIA

T: +44 (0)20 7373 5663

Rainer is based in Thailand and frequently travels between Beijing, Shanghai, Hong Kong and Singapore to run TPA's presence in Asia. Rainer's coaching style is clear, to the point, impactful and empathetic, while maintaining the ability to constructively challenge his clients. Rainer has a high degree of integrity, gentleness, excellent listening skills combined with a straight forward approach, high discipline and strong intuition and the ability to accurately read the situation in the room.

Experience

Rainer started coaching executives in 2006, while residing in Asia. He has coached senior executives and executive teams in a variety of sectors including FMCG, chemicals, drinks companies, the automotive industry and within financial services.

Most recently Rainer has held senior positions in Asia including Director of Human Resources China for Mondelez International (formerly Kraft foods) where he was responsible for 7,000 employees, the integration of a major business following an acquisition and a rapid growth business. Rainer then became the Director of Global Talent Management for Bacardi Asia Pacific & Global. Here Rainer was responsible for Global Leadership Development and the creating of a Global Coaching Roadmap, while supporting the Asia Pacific region.

Rainer has always focused on being a real business partner who enjoys being held to account for driving the performance of individuals and teams across the business he has been responsible for.
