David has 22 years of Professional Development, Coaching, Training & Career Management experience. His coaching style adapts to the individuals' personality combining a supportive and challenging approach with a 'solution focused' emphasis. Using powerful listening and attending skills individuals and groups are enabled to think creatively and take ownership of agreed actions and goals.

Experience

David's specialisms include the design, delivery, development and evaluation of 'transformational leadership' initiatives within the public sector ensuring that executive coaching programmes are supported by qualitative and quantitative feedback and that expected outputs are met and exceeded.

Recent examples of support include the 'Aspiring Leaders Network' at Gloucestershire County Council & Senior & Middle Managers from Gloucestershire Fire & Rescue Service where Personality Psychometric profiling and 'leader as coach' initiatives have been successfully incorporated into organisation-wide 'transformational leadership' development programmes.

David also has 16 years' experience of supporting senior managers as they transition into new internal roles / external career pathways or considering retirement.
