M. +852 5563 5526

Nadine applies her straightforward, no-nonsense approach to support leaders in diverse cross-cultural settings and challenging situations of organisational change. With her unique blend of business acumen and inter-cultural communication skills, she partners with senior executives to work towards practical solutions that make tangible and sustainable positive impact. Driven by her values of authenticity and integrity, she creates genuine connections of trust, so her clients feel understood and suitably challenged yet supported. She helps them see managerial and sector-specific challenges within a larger context, which enables them to connect their work to broader professional and personal purpose.

Experience

Nadine brings 10 years' top-level corporate and agency experience gained prior to retraining as a coach, having worked across many countries managing and growing multi-national and cross-cultural teams. An accomplished senior media executive and M&A communications adviser by background, and a global citizen by choice, Nadine has lived and worked in the UK, the US, across Europe and Asia.

Before she moved to Hong Kong in 2019, Nadine spent 7 years in China and Japan, coaching business leaders in a wide variety of organisations and industries such as automotive, pharma, FMCG, energy, technology, hospitality, media, government and the financial sector.

Her broad industry exposure and expertise in effective communication is highly valued by her executive clients. Nadine enables them to become more self-aware and leverage their impact on their stakeholders through positive, sustainable mindset and behaviour change.
