Nikolai has extensive experience across diverse industries including finance, real estate and technology. He brings his empowering leadership skills, strategic thinking and innovative problem-solving abilities to his coaching practice, having consistently delivered transformational change and performance growth in every executive role he undertook.

EXPERIENCE

After co-founding and exiting two companies, Nikolai joined various real estate and financial institutions, holding high-profile senior positions including CEO of multiple listed companies. His strategic insights and operational acumen make him a trusted Coach to numerous executives and entrepreneurs, helping them navigate complex business landscapes and achieve their goals. He also serves on various boards and committees in the private, public and charitable sectors.

Nikolai employs a hands-on approach to leadership development, fostering an environment where executives can reach their full potential. His deep understanding of business operations, combined with his exceptional communication and collaboration skills, enables him to build strong, productive relationships. Nikolai's coaching philosophy centres on the belief that true success comes from integrating personal and professional growth, empowering leaders to bring their authentic selves to their work and inspire others across their organisations.

Beyond his professional achievements, Nikolai is a dedicated philanthropist, actively involved in various charitable causes. He is passionate about supporting initiatives that promote social and economic equality, working to improve lives around the world.

He is widely respected within the business and finance communities for his integrity, professionalism, and unwavering commitment to excellence. Whether leading a company, coaching or advocating for social change, he remains focused on achieving meaningful results and making a positive difference.

Nikolai coaches in English and German.
